

Roman Britain

Summer 1

Key Knowledge

- Comparing the Celtic and Roman ways of life and finding the contrasts between Celtic warriors and the Roman army.
- Creating and using a timeline that shows the important events in Roman Britain and to understand the reasons why the Romans invaded Britain.
- Exploring who Julius Caesar was and his faults and achievements. Also, to describe what happened during Julius Caesar's invasion of Britain in 55BC and 54BC.
- Describing the main events of the Roman invasion of AD43 and how Caratacus resisted the Roman invaders.
- Investigating where the Romans settle in Britain and to understand how written evidence has helped to understand what Queen Boudica was like.
- Exploring the main events of Boudica's rebellion and finding out why the Celts and the Romans may have differed in their opinions of Boudica.

Key Question

- When did the Romans invade Britain and who was leading them?
- Why did the Romans want to invade Britain?
- Who was Julius Caesar and what happened when he invaded Britain?
- How did the Roman invasion in AD43 take place and who was Caratacus?
- Where did the Romans settle in Britain?
- Who was Queen Boudica and what was she like?
- What happened during Boudica's rebellion and why might opinions of her have differed?

Key Vocabulary

Timeline: Timelines are a listing of events, such as historical periods, which can make history much easier to understand. Timelines are used to show the time relationships between different events and different periods in history.

BC: BC is before Jesus was born, before Christ.

BCE: Before the Common Era

AD: AD comes from Latin Anno Domini meaning "In the year of Our Lord".

Invasion: An occasion when an army or country uses force to enter and take control of another country

Gauls: The Gauls were a group of Celtic peoples of Continental Europe in the Iron Age and the Roman period (roughly from the 5th century BC to the 5th century AD). The area they originally inhabited was known as Gaul, known as France today.

Revenge: Revenge is doing something to hurt another person because they believe that person hurt them.

Wealth: An abundance of valuable possessions or money.

Prestige: Having respect and admiration felt for someone or something.

Settlement: A place where people have settled.

Londoninium: London today.

Mamucium: Manchester today.

