

Playground games in the 20th century

Year 2

P.E

What is this topic?

This topic is all about playground games in the 20th Century and the skills required to effectively play these games. It is all about dodging, hopping, catching and throwing with a high level of control and determination. This topic requires skills to be perfected and put into action in game environments.

Key Vocabulary

Dodge	Avoid something or someone by a sudden movement.
Throw	Move something with force through the air.
Catch	The act of receiving the ball into your own possession.
Strike	Perform an accurate shot driving by an object or body part.
Accuracy	Something being correct or accurate.

Key Skills:

- ❖ Dodge and change direction
- ❖ Hop while playing a game
- ❖ Catch a ball with some control
- ❖ To throw underarm with some accuracy
- ❖ Throw a ball underarm to a partner
- ❖ To perform a side gallop
- ❖ To catch a ball
- ❖ To strike a ball to a partner
- ❖ To strike with some accuracy
- ❖ To work in a small group and encourage one another
- ❖ To apply a tactic in a game situation

